

At the NTAGO, it is our mission to help Parliament to hold Government accountable for its use of public resources by providing independent audits

Objectives	Risks	Focus Areas	Priority Actions	Outcomes
Drive change for better We audit things that matter. Parliament and public sector understand the implications of audit findings and take action to address.	Our audits lack relevance, are not timely, not valued and overall do not result in a demonstrable improvement in public administration.	Make an impact	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use our mandate to its full potential Refine our reports so they are more accessible and understandable Share knowledge and expertise within the NTAGO, across the public sector and the audit profession Consult with the public sector and Public Accounts Committee in the development of the annual plan of work 	Territorians are better informed and have trust and confidence in the public sector Parliament provides effective scrutiny of the public sector Accountable and capable public sector We secure our future
Build trust We proactively engage with stakeholders. Our stakeholders trust and value our services and insights.	Our relationships with stakeholders are not productive or our audits are not defensible, both resulting in lost credibility, trust and confidence.	Proactive engagement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Implement new ways of reaching out to the public Increase engagement with Parliament and the public sector Promote greater awareness of our work and advocate for better reporting Maintain compliant audit methodologies that enhance audit impact and integrity
Develop and enable our people Our team (including audit service providers) have the skills and capability to deliver reliable contemporary services.	We (including audit service providers) do not attract and retain the right people to develop or access required capabilities.	Skilled, capable and engaged workforce	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review future skills and capability requirements and plan for future workforce needs Address workload and the risk of dependence on key people Broaden the appeal of the NTAGO and audit profession Consider allocation of responsibility and authority Promote and support cross-sector experiences and networking opportunities
Deliver value for money services Our internal systems, structures and processes support the efficient, effective and economic delivery of our work.	We do not adapt our service delivery model resulting in inefficiencies, reputational loss and inability to invest in people and contemporary tools.	Fit-for-purpose systems and processes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review work allocation within the NTAGO and externally, utilising shared service offerings where appropriate Implement modern, secure and resilient information systems Continuously refine our audit delivery models Streamline our processes

Our Vision

An accountable, transparent, capable Northern Territory public sector delivering better outcomes for all Territorians

Our Objectives and Focus Areas

Our Purpose

To be a trusted source of independent information on the performance of the Northern Territory public sector

Our Strategic Roadmap

Our Strategic Roadmap outlines our journey over the next five years towards our Vision.

The journey starts with our Purpose, which reminds us why are we here and Values, which guide our behaviours. We subscribe to the Northern Territory Public Service values. Together, our Purpose and Values shape our culture and the way we go about our work.

Our Objectives and immediate Focus Areas inform our priorities for next five years and the most critical areas we must focus on now as we drive towards our Vision. Our Vision is our long-term ambition.

Our Strategic Plan sets out what we will do to meet our priorities and the Outcomes we seek for each of our stakeholders: the public sector, Parliament and all Territorians. The Outcome we seek for ourselves, but which ultimately impacts all our stakeholders, is a sustainable Office and the role of the Auditor-General remaining relevant into the future.

Our Strategic Plan is supported by our Business Plan outlining actions and measures for success.
